

Turkey's long history as one of the worst jailers of journalists around the globe

From 2012 to 2023, Turkey was one of the top 10 jailers of journalists each year in CPJ's annual prison census, which measures the number of journalists in jail globally as of midnight on December 1.

