

Majority of respondents want to be asked permission before their healthcare system uses AI for choosing treatments or making diagnoses

If your healthcare system uses AI for clinical purposes like choosing treatments or diagnosing patients, do you want to: (N = 1,000)

Give permission each time before AI is used

54%

Be notified each that AI is used, but do not need to give permission

32%

I do not want to be notified or asked for permission

14%