

1 in 3 foreign-born Southeast Asians and Pacific Islanders are paid less than $19.69 per hour

The bars show the prevalence of low-wage work among foreign-born and US-born Asian American and Pacific Islander workers. For example, 35.4% of foreign-born Pacific Islanders are paid low wages.

In 2022, the value of the low-wage threshold is $19.69. The sample includes workers who live and work in California, were employed last week but not self-employed, ages 16+, and with non-zero earnings last week. See "Data and Methods" for the definition of each AAPI group.
