

Democrats More Likely to Support Increased Child Care Spending

Child care policies aim to support families with young children in accessing affordable, high-quality non-parental child care services. If you had a say in making up the Federal budget this year, please indicate whether you would like to see more or less government spending in child care policies? (N = 1,000)

Dem/Lean Dem Independent Rep/Lean Rep

